NEW BOOK HIGHLIGHTS FLAW IN OUR MENTAL MAKEUP,
OFFERS SOLUTIONS TO WORLD PROBLEMS

January 19, 2010 – The discovery of a “glitch” in the evolutionary development of the human brain is highlighted in a new book to be released on February 20. The Evolutionary Glitch, by Italian scientist Albert Garoli, claims that destructive neural pathways in the brain are the root cause of all human problems including social conflicts, psychological instabilities, health problems, and poverty.

The Evolutionary Glitch describes the phenomena of the “Persona,” a neural mechanism that creates life problems in order to perpetuate itself. Six Persona “types” are identified from which readers can recognize one as their own and/or become familiar with the thinking patterns of others. Garoli then provides a series of practical techniques which can be used to re-train the brain’s neural pathways and regain control of the mind’s abilities. Drawing on the latest discoveries in quantum physics as well as ancient traditions and philosophies, The Evolutionary Glitch presents groundbreaking information about the human condition.

On February 20th 2010 “The Evolutionary Glitch: Rise Above the Root of Your Problems,” published by Loving Healing Press, will be available through online bookshops like Amazon.com and Barnes&Noble. For more information or for pre-release orders of the book with a 20% discount visit www.theevolutionaryglitch.com.

“Albert Garoli, in “The Evolutionary Glitch” gives us the insight needed so we can make the changes within ourselves and create our own world that is problem-free” (Irene Watson, Reader Views)
